

The Basics: Navigating the back end

After logging into your account, you will arrive at your dashboard and see the following:

To the left is the admin bar, where posts and tools reside. To the right is the dashboard, where quick information is available and can be organized via drag-and-drop as you see fit.